65	Harvey, Joy (F) Inspired by the Faras Cathedral Frescoes that were discovered after centuries buried under sand and recovered in the early 1960s, before the area was flooded during the creation of the Nasser Dam n Egypt. Using a base cloth that was stained and dyed after being buried under soil, bark and leaf litter for a month, all components of this Angel have been inspired by patterns and styles used in the vrous frescoes that were recovered.	Guardian of the Buried	Textile, contemporary reverse applique, beading embroidery, paint, stencil 215 x 86cm	NFS
64	Harvey, Joy (F) Highly Commended Inspired by Hathor the ancient Egyptian goddess who represents motherhood, the value of the arts & joy. In temples throughout the country she is referenced in both symbol & image form. Using the colour palette of her temple in Dendara, this aide-memoire brings together a compilation of the various ways she was identified during my travels in Egypt in 2012.	Guardian of Ancient Wisdom	Textile, contemporary revers applique, embroidery, beading paint 235 x 44cm	NFS
63	Harvey, Joy (F) Inspired by St James and the Camino de Santiago Pilgrimage route in Spain. Using photographs from my own experience of this pilgrimage, this aide-memoire is a composition of symbols and references seen along the path.	Guardian of the Path	Textile, contemporary reverse applique, embroidery, beading printing. 230 x 49cm	NFS
